The Front and Back Cover

Copyright © 2017 Creative Team Publishing, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

As a part of our service to our authors, Creative Team Publishing (CTP) provides the artwork and design for the front and back covers of your book. Your cover will be designed for maximum impact and sales.

Covers provided as part of the Superior Package are four color, front and back. Covers provided as part of the Streamline Package are also four color utilizing a template that we custom design and apply to your book.

We invite and encourage authors to send us their ideas and illustrations for consideration. CTP makes the final decisions on the cover content and layout.

It is important that if you have any artwork you want considered for use that is not your own, that is, for which you do not own the copyright, regardless of media or source, written permission from the owners of the artwork must be obtained for any use.
